Order of Catholic Nuns Acquires MWA Sanatorium, Davis Mansion

Sisters Given $2,325,000 By Estate of Mrs. Davis

Taft Labels Ike's Choice "Incredible"

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1930

DAVIS TO PUSH GOLD CAMP CULTURAL CENTER PROGRAM

Davis, president of the Colorado Springs Art Association, is pushing for the establishment of a cultural center in the area. He plans to lead a group of artists and enthusiasts to create a permanent home for the arts in the region.

SALARY HIKE GRANTED TO STATE JUDGES

The governor has signed a bill increasing the salaries of state judges. The new salaries will come into effect immediately.

CITY DUE TO APPLY FOR BLUE RIVER AID FUND BY END OF YEAR

The city is preparing to apply for a federal grant to assist in the development of the Blue River. The funds would be used for the construction of a dam and related infrastructure.

MWA PROPERTY AT FROM - A general view of the MWA property taken looking westward. At the left, No. 1 is the main building and No. 2 is the main building. No. 3 is the administration building. No. 4 is the residence. All have 24 houses. (Photo by Rafter)
MWA Sanatorium. Trianon Place Are Two Of Pikes Peak Region's Famed Showplaces

The Sanatorium and the Trianon Place are two of the most famous showplaces in the Pikes Peak Region. The Sanatorium is a beautiful hotel, with all modern amenities, located on the slope of Pikes Peak. The Trianon Place is a luxurious apartment building, situated in the heart of downtown Colorado Springs.

Rush for Free Christmas Carol Booklets Under Way

An estimated 10,000 Christmas carol booklets were given away by the Colorado Springs YMCA, on Monday, December 1st, at the City Auditorium. These booklets contain a selection of Christmas carols, including traditional songs and modern arrangements. They were distributed to anyone who attended the event, and all entrants received a free booklet.

Today's Weather

Today's weather in Colorado Springs is expected to be clear with temperatures ranging from 35°F to 50°F. There is a slight chance of rain in the morning, but sunny conditions are expected later in the day. Winds are expected to be light, with a high of 5 mph.

Gazette Telegraph Story Restored

The Gazette Telegraph, a historic newspaper, has been restored and is available for viewing online. The newspaper was published from 1881 to 1940, and its archives contain valuable information about Colorado Springs history.

Mama Is Worth $7 A Day

Mama is worth $7 a day, according to experts who claim that women are underpaid for their work. This claim is based on research that shows that women earn less than men on average.

Newspaper headlines from a bygone era.
Grain Market

Mrs. Sarah Brown, 82, Dies, Friday; Wednesday

CHICAGO, Ill. (AP) - Mrs. Sarah Brown, 82, died Friday at Cook County hospital. She was the daughter of the late John Brown, who lived in the community, and is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Frances Chadwick of Denver, and granddaughter, Mrs. Sarah Chadwick of Detroit. The funeral will be private.

Denver Produce

Wheat continues on pace to 75c per bushel, which is close to parity. The high was 74 1/2 c per bushel and the low was 72 1/2 c per bushel.

Denver Livestock

Meat prices continued up for the second straight day, with beef prices leading the way. The high was 48 1/2 c per pound, and the low was 45 1/2 c per pound.

State Securities

Colorado Springs Stock Exchange

prices of stocks and bonds

Local Quotations

MWA Sanatorium

Truman Place Are Region Showplaces

(Continued From Page One)

Denver, Colo., March 10 - The MWA Sanatorium, which is the nation's oldest sanatorium for tuberculosis patients, opened on March 10. The sanatorium is located in the heart of the city, and is equipped with all the modern medical facilities necessary for the treatment of tuberculosis patients.

Catholic Order Acquires MWA and Davis Mansion

(Continued From Page One)

After the MWA property was acquired, the mansion was converted into a hospital for the treatment of tuberculosis patients. The new hospital, which is located in the heart of the city, is equipped with all the modern medical facilities necessary for the treatment of tuberculosis patients.

Reuther Reported Assured of New CIO Leadership

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., June 7 -- Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, was assured of the support of the CIO in his bid for the presidency of the CIO union on Thursday. Reuther, who is running for the presidency of the CIO, has the backing of the United Auto Workers, who are the largest union in the CIO.

Vital Statistics

City Due to Apply

Three $25 Fines Imposed on Driver Of School Bus

Fines of $25 each were imposed on a driver of a school bus in the city for violations of traffic laws. The driver, who was operating the bus in the city, was cited for failing to stop at a school zone and for violating the speed limit.

Pharmacies have been part of the history of many communities.