

The Iron Springs property at Manitou was transferred to the new company Tuesday. It is stated that among the plans proposed by the new company will be the increasing of the hotel plant to a building costing $300,000. The price paid for the property by the new company is about $150,000, and among the purchasers are Major John Hulbert, Mr. J. B. Wheeler and Mr. M. A. Leedy.