M. W. A. HAS 10,000 TUBERCULAR CASES

SANITARIUM WORK ONLY IN FANCY.

Enterprise Will Grow Until Accommodation May Be Furnished to All Patients.

Spurred on by the spirit of fraternity, and humanitarianism, the head camp officials of the Modern Woodmen of America, representing the 200,000 members of that order, are putting forth every effort to increase the capacity of the sanitarium north of this city, so that it may accommodate eighty patients at a time; it will be able to afford treatment for each one of the 10,000 Woodmen who are now in need of care.

Confidence in the successful outcome of the fight against tuberculosis and pride in the ten colonies which make up the sanitarium, Mr. Talbot and Mr. W. Havens at the public meeting in the Opera House last night. Mr. Murphy spoke of the Sanitarium. "One of the greatest blessings now being treated, practically all of them have families of from three to seven children. The work has only begun. There are yet 10,000 Woodmen who are afflicted with tuberculosis. The sanitary is to be enlarged as rapidly as possible and the scope extended as the funds will permit. In the future, possibly within the next five years, the order will be able to care for practically all of its tuberculous members."

Welcome by Spurgeon.

Last night's meeting was one of the most enthusiastic ever held here. The Opera House was comfortably filled by Woodmen and citizens of Colorado Springs who are interested in the work of the Woodman Sanitarium. Mayor W. H. Spurgeon welcomed the head camp officials and district deputies in an appropriate address. He spoke of the healthful climate of Colorado Springs and the hope of recovery offered to those suffering from tuberculosis. Mayor Spurgeon congratulated the Woodmen on their fight against the white plague and welcomed them to the city as allies, as well as friends.

Head Camp Talbot reviewed the history of the Modern Woodmen of America and told of its great work. Deputy C. E. Whelan carried off the oratorical honors of the evening by an excellent address on "Prerogatives." Head Clerk Havens gave an interesting address on the remarkable growth of the order and its great financial strength. The program was concluded by an address delivered by a select selection by Fink's orchestra. A. W. Martin, counsel of one of Colorado Springs W. A. M. A. camps, presented...
