Burtch Wylie, 814 Cimarron street, was instantly killed last night when the stolen automobile he was driving turned over and crushed his skull. He was also injured in the accident.

The car was traveling south on the Pueblo road, in a high rate of speed at the time the accident occurred, and it was not until a part of the car's body was found that the police of the accident that the body was discovered. The car capitated at a speed of five miles from the city.

The car which was driving, a Dodge five-passenger model, 1916, was driven by A. W. Whitman of Calhan, and had been stolen from a front of a residence at 618 North Weber street. The robbery was reported to the police at 8:30 and search parties had been sent out in all directions looking for the stolen car.

About 10 o'clock the police received a report that a man was killed in an automobile accident on the Pueblo road and the police ambulance was sent out immediately. When it arrived Wylie's body was found lying in the street, which had been worked over by the wrecking crew. Later, when the news of his death reached the ambulance was sent to the scene of the accident.

Mechanic Caught Between Autos; Jaw Fractured

While sitting on the ground removing a tire from the car, Mr. W. Ziegler, a mechanic employed by the Denver Auto Company, was caught between a car and another car driven by G. R. Boimen, who was attempting to back from a parking position. Ziegler sustained a broken jaw, several bruises and several internal injuries in the accident, which occurred in the Independence building.

Ziegler was taken to his home, 2205 West Colorado avenue, in the police ambulance after receiving medical attention.

FREE CLINIC OPENED FOR CONSUMPTIVES

Dr. Mary K. Noble, medical director

Indigent sufferers are offered relief through public association.

A tuberculosis clinic established for the benefit of sufferers from the white plague who should receive free treatment from the best available resources will be opened at the headquarters of the Visiting Nurse association, 302 South Wathave street, within a few days. The clinic will be carried on in charge of Dr. Mary R. Noble, as medical director.

Plays for the clinic have been under way for some time, but they are not yet ready for public exhibition. In the meantime, the handling of tubercular cases will be in the hands of the staff of the Visiting Nurse association.

MARCH 20

Ninety-six patients have been treated in the tuberculosis clinic at the Colorado Springs campus of the Colorado Public Health association, which was recently organized here and in the same building where the handling of tubercular cases will be in the hands of the staff of the Visiting Nurse association.

purpose. The latter organization also will visit the cars of patients and take an active interest in all work of the clinic. Dr. Mary Blough Noble, who will have charge of the clinic, for several years has been active in public health work.

In announcing the establishment of the clinic yesterday Mr. Hills spoke of the hope of the committee to care for some of the patients and those who are unable to get medical treatment and good nursing.

There are many such cases in the city. All of them are being treated, either with or without the belief that they will fill a long felt need in the community.
