

Three employes of the Edson Incandescent Light Company commenced work yesterday at the Iron Springs Hotel in putting in the electric light plant. The work will be pushed forward as rapidly as possible until completed. Until the lights are tried and the power tested nothing definite can be arranged with reference to lighting the lower part of Manitou.